

2018 Points and Handicapping Structure for Big Diamond Speedway

Modifieds, Sportsman, Road Runners and Street Stocks

- Handicapping is done a three week handicap
- Total points earned between heat, feature and penalty points(if applicable) divided by 3
- The 1st week will be a draw, points will commence the following points show
- If a driver is new, they will be started at the rear of the qualifying event to earn points
- Concerns with a driver who is not experienced enough or vehicle capable of starting in their handicapped spot will be addressed on a case by case by the officials
- Feature lineup based on handicap with previous race winner starting in last handicapped position unless a non-handicapped driver makes the invert through qualifying race
- The maximum number of cars to start any given feature will be 24 cars in all divisions

Number of events based on car count

- 23 or fewer cars = 2 heat races, no consolation. All qualify, 6 handicapped
- 24-36 cars = 3 heat races, 1 consolation (based on need). 6 qualify from the heats, 4 handicapped. 6 from consolation for all divisions
- 37-48 cars = 4 heat races, 2 consolations. 5 qualify from the heats, 3 handicapped. 2 cars will qualify from each consolation all divisions

Penalty Points

- Each competitor will have one week in the race season to take a vacation week. It can be due to an engine failure, want to go on vacation, just need a break or whatever. It must be advised to the track prior to the night's events.
- Once the "vacation" week has been exhausted, each missed week will accrue 60 penalty points for a week missed. You will not be give a full week of points and will not be added a night to be divided by to be fair but you will be given points to your handicap.
- If you are found to be racing at another facility, you will be given a full feature win penalty point of 300 points.
